E544 2007h OCLC Number: (OCoLC)676702733 Subject: Climatic changes -- Public opinion. Excerpt: . . . 11 are still vulnerable and likely to be flooded in a major storm. These are the people who dont have the means or resources to evacuate, relocate and put their lives back together. As a resident of New Orleans, Louisiana, a great city that bore the brunt of the effects of Hurricane Katrina, it is important that I am here to stress the fact that global warming is real and it is a hard reality for many people along the gulf coast. During Katrina, all of my family members that lived in the city lost every-thing. They lost their homes, their jobs, places of worship; and now, 2 years later, none of those families have moved back into their homes. I, too, personally have been affected because I lost all of my campus possessions, and I was displaced from my city and my school. Many of my peers and colleagues still feel the effects of Katrina. Some are behind in their collegial studies because the universities were closed for a semester; and, upon reopening, a lot of the degree programs were discontinued because of lack of faculty members. We are faced with extreme increases in rent and living expenses, along with a decrease in job opportunities. Because of this, we are all impacted both physically and mentally. As a young person, I feel it is my responsibility to work to com-bat the crisis of global warming. While working with the Deep South Center for Environmental Justice, I helped facilitate a sem-inar on global warming. I...
