Brand New Book  Print on Demand .I was standing in the middle of nowhere with no real destination in mind. There was only the dire need to disappear from Charleston. With my head tilted up to the gray sky and my eyes closed, I let the light droplets of rain fall onto my face. I d reached a crossroads in my life and was trying to find a reason to keep going. I had no idea a hurricane was coming and fate would choose that moment for our paths to cross. Hey! You okay? A voice called out to me in a deep southern drawl, pulling me out of my fog. Can I give you a ride somewhere? I opened my eyes and found a pair of intense blue eyes staring back at me. His name was Fox. He had an irresistibly sexy grin, and judging by his fast car, a need for speed. His timing couldn t have been more perfect. I was looking to start a little trouble, since it was what I did best and he seemed like a good target. After sharing an incredible night together, I quickly learned that Fox was more than he appeared and full of delicious surprises. He gifted my body with unbelievable pleasures and unlocked emotions that I d wanted to keep hidden. When I pushed him away, he left claiming a piece of my soul. I never imagined that getting into his car that day would start a transformation within me and forever change the course of my life. Fox challenged every rule I d ever made by tearing down the carefully constructed barriers around my heart. I never intended to fall in love...
