Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Opinions of the Press and of Eminent Public Men on the Importance of Our Mineral Resources: And the Advantages to Be Derived From the Establishment of a National School of Mines The democratic doctrine is, that the country which is governed least, is governed best; and ultra democrats, like Gerret Smith, have followed this theory so far as to proclaim that the only function of government is the police function, and, from that standpoint, to include in one common condemnation free schools, the postal system, river, harbor and canal improvements, coast surveys, agricultural, patent and scientific bureau, and, in short, everything not directly necessary for the maintenance of peace and the prevention or punishment of crime. Statesmen, however, do not attempt to apply the theories of philosophers with such relentless consistency. They recognize the fact that many things must be done by government which would otherwise not be done at all; that the interests of education, industry and commerce in every part of a nation are of vital importance to the whole people. and that...
