Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Seventh Annual Report of the American Dairymen s Association: With Transactions and Addresses at Annual Meeting, List of Cheese Factories, List of Members, Reports of Factories, and Other Papers of Valfe and Interest, for the Year 1871 This, - the Ninth Annual Report issued since the organization of the original society, - will be found, it is believed, fully equal in intrinsic worth and interest, to any of the volumes that have preceded it. The introduction of cuts in illustrating the principal addresses delivered at the annual meeting, adds a new feature to these reports, and will be found invaluable in enabling members of the Association, and others who read this volume, the more fully to understand and apply the truths and principles enunciated by the speakers. Of the eight or ten prominent addresses delivered before the convention in January, and printed in full in this volume, all are valuable, and indicate that advance steps are being taken in all directions by the members and friends of this Association. In their treatment of the various subjects, a wide range of thought and experience is mapped out, and to the thoughtful, practical dairyman they will call out thought and experiment. Prof. Caldwell, by again giving his time to the preparation of another valuable lecture for the recent convention, as well as by being in attendance very nearly throughout the three days session, has renewedly placed our members under special obligations. The subject of Condensed Milk manufacture is now prominently before the dairying public, and has been for months; and the Secretary has been called upon to send out advance sheets of Mr. Willard s address on...
