Not illustrated. 1911 Excerpt: . . . 1st, this Committee made the following report: As authorized at the last meeting of the Board, arrangements have been made to move the offices of the Society from the Real Estate Trust Building to the Hale Building, 1326-28 Chestnut Street, where two large rooms have been leased at 700 a year; the lease running until September, 1914. The new quarters are much larger, and it is believed will afford facilities for the growth of the work of the Society. The difference in the rent is only 25 a year and the amount of space is at least twice as great. A new set of books has been opened and other changes made in the routine work of the office, including the adoption of a card filing system for the membership accounts. The Committee has been in communication with Mr. Charles S. W. Packard in regard to his assuming the duties of treasurer and his consent has been secured to so act. The scope of his duties should be definitely outlined. The Society is to be congratulated upon securing Mr. Packard's services. As a result of negotiations with the Society of the Alumni of the Law Department, that Society has promised to sign the agreement of union. The Engineering Society has taken the matter under consideration and it is hoped that that Society, too, will become a party to the agreement. As a result of negotiations with the Central Committee of the Alumni, that committee has agreed to...
