E. Church, Washington, D. C. Sunday Evening, Jan y 17, 1886 Africa! Liberia! What hardship and heroism in our time they represent. The dark Continent! The infant Republic! What memories of the past! What hopes of the future! Providence turns heavy doors on the smallest hinges. No romance of fiction can equal the wonders of the way in which ad wine purpose threads its course through all the maze of human history. From the first generations the trend of the human race has been turned hither and thither by things in themselves lighter than a feather. God first partitioned the land and water and settled the geologic and climatic conditions and then divided the nations to their several estatesThe third part of the Eastern hemisphere, according to tradition, fell to the sons of Ham in whose family there was an ancient curse. But in the economy of Heaven there is no curse without a blessing and often the blessing blossoms from the curse! Africa became the asylum of the two greatest figures in the annals of time. A tear-drop on the cheek of a babe in a reed basket among the rushes of the Nile gave rise to the fortunes of a people out of whom came at last the worlds Messiah! When Christ was born, his infancy, like that of Moses, was sheltered in the land of Egypt. That was the only gate of ingress or egress which remained unshut round a coast of 16,000 miles. The seal of the continent...
