Melrose Books. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The Jam and Other Relationships, Russell Hayton, This narrative is of a motorcycle journey to Trieste for a cup of coffee. Trieste was the port where coffee originally entered Europe - the Austro-Hungarian Empire. Coffee curiosity began on an earlier trip in the Alps with an espresso so small I thought ridiculous. But later, back on the road, the aftertaste set in and I was transformed. This journey was part holiday, part business encumbered by the personal issues before and during the trip. Thus the journal consists of two intermingled parts beginning as a catharsis as a consequence of my estrangement, but then extends to an impromptu narrative of travel and those ensuing relationships of machine, place and people. The journal is of the various occurrences and the feelings and reactions experienced during the journey as distinct from visiting as a tourist. I use paper, fountain pen and ink and write in the various cafes en route. I took David Lodge's book Therapy and Ben Okri's Birds of Heaven. Lodge was, to some extent, of the same genre as my initial writing. Okri has a disposition regarding words and 'the beyond' that I felt was also an aspiration of mine and somehow linked to my solitude fundamental to my growing up. Hence to travel alone allowed deviation according to impulse without influence from 'the other'. Later, there was companionship at the yoga holiday in Crete meeting two ladies and back home to the race track to watch my son in his Alfa.
