Despite the fact that Marie was a high-performing freshman in the top 10 percent of her class, the adviser told her not to waste her time. You're going to end up cooking or cleaning at somebody's house. Her face flushed with anger, Marie stood up, emphatically announced that I am going to college, . . . Marie graduated third in her class and went on to Colorado State College of Education in Greeley (now the University of Northern Colorado) where she earned her degree in 1935. Marie recalls that when she started teaching 70 years ago, she had two goals. I had to keep my job in the middle of the Depression and I had to keep the door open for others to come in. Because the first African-American teacher hired by DPS on probation in 1934 did...
