Daphne Pitts, a native of Nashville TN was raised in a Christian home and herself accepted Christ while a student at Meharry Medical College. She has had a life-long desire to be an author was told by her 10th grade English teacher that she should write books. Several years later (after medical school, marriage, and raising 6 children) she wrote this book based on the questions her youngest child asked her when he was small. She is a graduate of St. Cecilia Academy in Nashville, TN. She holds a B. A degree from Tennessee State University and received her M. D degree from Meharry Medical College. After completing her residency in Emergency Medicine at Howard University Hospital in Washington D. C. , she served as a physician for the US Air Force for several years. She currently resides in the southern United States with her husband Greg and is a member of Bible Home Church. Daphne Pitts loves to use her interaction with people who come to her for illnesses as a way to introduce them to the healing power and love of Jesus Christ. She...
