Not illustrated. 1918 Excerpt: .secretaries visits with Chinese students in different institutions, for the travelling of Central Board officers in going to meetings, for extension work, for the maintenance of the Central Office, etc. amounts to over $5,000. Of course, our Association does not have the strength enough to bear this financial burden; we have to depend on the Committee on Friendly Relations among Foreign Students for a greater part of our support. Nevertheless, it is up to each one of us to help shoulder the amount of $2,000 or more, which is our share. The membership fees only aggregate from four to five hundred dollars a year; therefore it is necessary to hold a financial campaign yearly to make up for the deficiency. You will be notified as to the time of the campaign, and we hope that you will endeavor to help carry it to a successful finish. Why make all this effort? I hear it asked. Why pay a dollar for membership? Why help in the financial campaign? Why do all this when you and I do not seem to get anything in return? It is true that you yourselves may not get any profit from your generous contributions of time, money, and work; but indirectly you are helping somebody else whom you do not know, and whom you may not have a chance to meet at all. Perhaps you have of boy scouts, lectures on patriotic subjects, help to new students, employment branch, Y.M.C.A. work in...
